

VIII. NONSENSE WORD FLUENCY

Activity #1:

Cut out the Nonsense Word Flashcards. Begin with the first letter of each nonsense word and ask your child to read each of the three sounds. Then have him/her read the word.

Activity #2:

Using the page titled Nonsense Word Fluency Reading, ask your child to read the nonsense word strips. Begin with the top row. He/she will read each row and then move on to the next row. When finished, ask your child to read the entire page row by row.

Activity #3:

Using the page titled Nonsense Word Fluency Reading, point to words randomly and ask your child to read them to you.

Activity #4:

Cut out the page titled Alphabet Flashcards. Separate the vowels from the consonants. Together, take turns making nonsense words to read to each other. For example, choose "b", "o", "v" → your child reads "bov". Your child chooses "j", "e", "p" → you will read "jep".

COMPUTER ACTIVITY:

Using your computer keyboard, ask your child to type nonsense words. Ask him/her to read the words back to you when finished.
